

Cal Coast Gallery

The Northern California Coast exhibit complements the California and Climate Change exhibit nearby. Visible from the main floor, a sandy flat and salt marsh remind us of the habitats, beauty, and services provided by San Francisco Bay. A level below, a floor-to-ceiling view into the 100,000-gallon California Coast tank reveals a magnificent rocky habitat modeled on the Farallon Islands just a few miles west of San Francisco. Additional exhibits illustrate the many habitats of our rocky coast and the adaptation of animals to their opportunities and challenges.
